

“STAND UP FOR SOMETHING OR FALL FOR ANYTHING”

Denise Christian

To be informed members of society we should expend energy, encourage and engage in discussions that explore local and global ideals, social, economic, and historic issues. We should also come together in conversations that focus on the arts, literature, and education. I welcome, and listen to all types of responsibly presented and sensibly argued ideas and insights. I attempt to listen and learn about a number of topics that are outside my area of interest with the anticipation of becoming better informed. Not everything presented is beneficial. However, listening helps build-on or refine what I hold as tenets, while the exercise strengthens my resolve. Or the information measurably moves me to study further, or seek contrary information.

Sadly, the acts and arts of reading with comprehension, listening to hear, then think, reason and deliberate are attributes quickly vanishing from within our society. We've become frustrated and dulled. Due to the current levels of poor behaviors and unending rhetoric that surround many political and religious issues, many feel helpless to become change agents.

Other subjects, such as: alternative sexual orientation, the presentation as normal the gay and lesbian lifestyle, or the rights, (or lack thereof) of this God-willed, “dispossessed group,” has been added to the list of topics that can no longer be discussed in a larger group setting. There is no reasoned or sensibly argued position that allows me to disavow my beliefs and principles and could allow these unholy desires and behaviors to become common and ordinary within our society without challenge.

Sin is sin. Sexual immorality is a class of sin described in biblical terms to be avoided. If we accept, condone, passively sit back, or agree to make allowances for this class of sin, we are not living as we're called to live – as salt and light. Nor can we walk in the truth God Himself gave us.

Luke 14:35 reads: ...“Flavorless salt is good neither for the soil nor for the manure pile. It is thrown away. Anyone with ears to hear should listen and understand!” (NLT) Jesus spoke these words in Rev 3:15-16: “15I know your deeds, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were either one or the other! 16 So, because you are lukewarm—neither hot nor cold — I am about to spit you out of my mouth.”

If we're to preserve as salt, if we're to be flavorful, if we're to be hot or cold in order to be pleasing . . . if we're to walk in the light – which is the truth of God's word, we cannot be satisfied to allow these sins to overtake our culture.

We cannot sit silently while those of a certain dissolute mind, and carnal desires, push to manipulate and govern without regard to God's laws. We cannot allow the sinful nature of some to become more deeply entrenched in our communities. We have to stand for something, or we will find we've fallen for anything that's put in front of us. We must find the necessary spiritual might and energy to withstand sinful aggression. We must demand a higher quality of social ideology.

Take appropriate actions remembering that what we allow now we leave for our children and theirs. Trust the Holy Spirit to be there and stand with you in times of need as you develop relationships and stand up for God's laws!
