Beautiful Feet

By Dan Jenkins

“I will never forget the first time I saw him. It was love at first sight. He had the most beautiful smile I had ever seen, and then when I looked into his eyes—they were beyond beautiful.” Words like this are sometimes part of conversations in our land, but one thing you will never hear. “He had the most beautiful feet I have ever seen. I was captivated by their beauty.” Now as strange as it might seem, the Bible does talk about beautiful feet.

God’s plan was for His people to take His message to a lost world. How did He look at it? “How shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach unless they are sent? As it is written: ‘How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the gospel the gospel of peace, who bring glad tidings of good things’” (Romans 10:14-15)! There it is. Those who bring the gospel to the lost have beautiful feet.

What makes their feet beautiful? It begins long before they walk to conduct their study with a lost person. When God described the armor Christian soldiers must put on, He did not forget their feet (Eph. 6:13-18). He has on his head a helmet of salvation. His upper body has a breastplate of righteousness. His midsection is wrapped with the truth of God. His hand has that shield of faith to withstand every fiery projectile thrown at him by Satan. He also holds the sword of the Spirit, the word of God. However, there is one other item he must have. He must enclose his feet with “the preparation of the gospel of peace.”

That gospel of peace was completely prepared by God as He established the church, but we must ensure that we place it on our feet. Teaching others demands hours of preparing ourselves. It demands prayer and long periods of study of God’s word. However, God expects all of us to feed on the milk of the word, then go on to feasting on the meat of the word and then to become teachers of others (Heb. 5:12-14).

Having done this, we take that “gospel of peace” to a troubled world. It brings peace between those who were captivated by sin, enemies of God, and makes them children of God. It brings to their hearts a peace which passes all understanding.

It also brings “glad tidings of good things.” Is this not the definition of the gospel? The Greek word for gospel literally means good news. We take this good news to them, and it brings gladness to their souls. It brings gladness to your soul for there is no joy greater than bringing a lost person to Him.

So, take time to look at our feet. They may appear hideous to us, but the heart of that lost one will say, “How beautiful are the feet of those brought me the gospel of peace, glad tidings of good things!”

Knowing Nothing But Christ

- Kevin Harrington

"For I determined not to know anything among you except Jesus Christ and Him crucified." - 1 Cor. 2:2

Today's world is full of information. Everyone needs to know the latest and greatest information. We all have phones, tablets, and computers that will download anything we need at the touch of a button. There is something about human nature where we need to know as much as we can about everything. It doesn't take long for gossip to spread through the office or through school. We are intrigued by the latest headlines and "juicy" stories. If we aren't careful, we can become so concerned with everything this world is shoving down our throats and forget about our faith in Jesus Christ.

When Paul was with the church in Corinth he reminded them that he was determined to know nothing among the church except Jesus Christ and Him crucified. I love that attitude and I think many Christians would do well to have that same mindset. Paul was not concerned with the drama and arguments that sneak into the church. Paul was not concerned with the gossip that goes around. Paul was only concerned about one thing: Jesus Christ. His goal was to teach Jesus Christ to anyone who wanted to listen. His goal was to affectively spread the Gospel so that everyone can share in the glory of Jesus Christ. He wanted to spread the word about the Lord's crucifixion and resurrection.

Paul was working too hard to get involved with everything else that was going on. Paul definitely proved himself as worker for the Lord. His reputation could speak for itself. He was someone who loved Christ and wanted to share that love with his brothers and sisters in Christ. Do we share that same mindset and attitude? Are we concerned with all the latest and greatest information of the world or are we concerned with spreading the Gospel of Christ? Are we concerned with the latest gossip that's going around or are we more concerned with teaching other people about the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ?

Take a moment today to see where your mindset is. Take a moment to see if you are someone who can say you are determined to know nothing except Jesus and Him crucified. It's time we start making Jesus the center of our lives. It's time we start making Jesus the reason for everything we do.
